ARTWORK NETWORK DRAPES DIXONS WITH ECLECTIC FLAGS

(Denver) Artwork Network presents "Flags of Introspection" by Mike Giese from June 19 through September 16th, 2008 at Dixons Downtown Grill, 1610 16th St. in Lower Downtown Denver. The public is invited to a meet and greet with the artist at Dixon's on Aug 20th from 4 to 6 pm.

The show includes an eclectic, colorful mix of three dimensional flags that depict political commentary, patriotism, tributes to Denver sports teams and other satirical observations. The mixed media flags are made from a variety of materials including wood, clay and paint even one made that is made out of U.S. currency. Many were inspired by the upcoming Democratic National Convention.

Mike Giese is from Louisville, Colorado and has been creating art for about 25 years. He created each piece to represent a pressing issue which concerns the future of our people, each in their own way. His own personal favorite piece is what he calls the "Diversity Flag". He says it embodies the true spirit of America, the melting pot of people learning and growing together, no matter their differences.
