JURIED SHOW

Artwork Network is preparing to launch our next on-line juried show.
The theme for this show will be:ANYTHING BUT GREENWinners for this show will be chosen differently than the last one.All submitted pieces will be juried by both public vote and our selected jury.
We will officially put the call for entries out in October, and will have rules and details on the site at that time. In the meantime, keep it on your radar and start to create! All mediums will be accepted and like before, must be submitted via email only.
