Artwork Network Gives Patrons Something to Wine About

Showroom now licensed offsite tasting room for Bonacquisti Wine Company

(Denver) Artwork Network is proud to announce a new partnership with Bonacquisti Wine Company, Denver's Urban Winery. The Artwork Network showroom at 878 Santa Fe Drive is now licensed as one of Bonacquisti's off-site venues where they offer wine for tasting and for sale by the glass or by the bottle to go.

Paul Bonacquisti, owner of the wine company, has worked with Alan Kircher, founder of Artwork Network for some time using his art rotation services in his winery off I-70 and Pecos. When the two entrepreneurs saw an opportunity to cross market, they jumped on the opportunity. "Having an art business as one of my tasting rooms seemed like a natural fit," Said Paul Bonacquisti. "I can reach out to customers in the art market and Artwork Network can draw customers in with a unique offering".

Bonacquisti wine will be available for purchase by the glass on First Fridays from 5-9 pm. Other tastings events are to be announced, where, for a small fee, patrons can taste and learn about wines such as Vinny No-Neck, Colorado Cabernet Franc and the Award winning Colorado Syrah and, if they like, purchase a bottle to go.

"We are looking forward to providing a responsible way for patrons to have wine while enjoying the art in our showroom", said Alan Kircher, "It is about creating a total experience and allowing us to differentiate ourselves from other businesses in the area."

Bonacquisti Wine Company is not draped in the traditions of your typical winery. They are located in a funky industrial condo off I-70 and Pecos where there are no vineyards and aren't going to be! They make wine with Colorado grown grapes from Palisade and also use select grapes from outside the state. They are a small production winery dedicated to making good wine for all to enjoy.
